

BIOGRAPHY

Warren “Tony” Caldwell

Co-Founder and CEO

Having built OAA into one of the U.S.'s largest regional insurance distributors with over $300 million sales, Tony Caldwell is a serial entrepreneur. OAA is the number one ranked Strategic Master Agency of SIAA with 150 insurance agency partners. Recognized for the third year in a row as one of Oklahoma City's fastest growing businesses, OAA has created over 150 insurance agencies from scratch.

Also Managing Partner in Oklahoma Business Insurers Agency, CEO of Synergy Insurance Services, partner in TVC Insurance Agency operating in 48 states and CEO of Associates Premium Finance Company.

A business and insurance industry thought leader, Caldwell speaks on insurance issues and publishes "Growth Agent Insight", a blog on topics related to growing entrepreneurial businesses (<http://oaaonline.net/category/growth-agent-insight>). Former Chairman and board member of the Independent Insurance Agents of Oklahoma Tony is deeply committed to community service which includes:

- Oklahoma House of Representatives, elected in 1992 and served two terms
- Chairman, It's My Community Initiative, Inc. a nonprofit working with disadvantaged individuals in Oklahoma City
- Chairman, Oklahoma Board of Juvenile Affairs, appointed by Governor Mary Fallin
- Former Vice Chairman, Board of Corrections, appointed by Governor Frank Keating
- Previous service on the boards of or as an officer for Salvation Army, Last Frontier Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Rotary Club of Oklahoma City #29, FUMC of OKC Trustees, Boys and Girls Clubs of OKC, Engineers Flying Club and PWA, Inc.

Caldwell received his BA in Government from Centenary College of Louisiana in 1980 and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

An active outdoorsman and avid instrument rated commercial pilot Caldwell is married to Sharon Caldwell and they have two sons. The Caldwell's are members of Crossings Community Church.