

BIOGRAPHY

Marty Cagle

Director of First Impressions

Marty Cagle joined OAA in 2015 in the AccessPlus Personal Lines department. In 2012, she worked for a Farmers agent who soon after became an independent agent. Marty understands a member's desire to be independent, but while leaning on OAA to fill in the gaps and maximize their income.

Marty holds an agency and producer license and has taken many continuing education classes and courses designed for the insurance industry.

Marty's passion is helping people, and there's not a team member at OAA who doesn't benefit from her heart and willingness to be a huge contributor on this team. Marty is a mother of four, a grandmother of three and a wife of one. She has been a Stephen Minister at Crossings Community Church for the past 16 years. Marty enjoys family time, people watching and any basketball, especially OU.
