Warren “Tony” Caldwell

Co-Founder and CEO

Having built the eighth-largest personal insurance agency in the U.S., Tony Caldwell is an experienced business and insurance industry thought leader. Caldwell frequently speaks on insurance issues and publishes a blog, Growth Agent Insight, dedicated to topics related to starting up and growing insurance agencies. He is a former chairman and board member of the Independent Insurance Agents of Oklahoma. Caldwell is deeply committed to serving his local community, evidenced by his public service record and his leadership roles with local nonprofits.

Tony’s community involvement includes:

- Oklahoma House of Representatives, elected in 1992 and served two terms
- Chairman of It’s My Community Initiative, Inc., a nonprofit working with disadvantaged individuals in Oklahoma City
- Board of Juvenile Affairs, appointed by Oklahoma Governor Mary Fallin
- Former Vice Chairman of the Board of Corrections, appointed by Oklahoma Governor Frank Keating
- Previously served on the boards of directors or officer for the Salvation Army, Last Frontier Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Rotary Club of Oklahoma City #29, First United Methodist Church of Oklahoma City Board of Trustees, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Oklahoma City, Engineers Flying Club, and PWA, Inc.

Caldwell received his bachelor of arts in government from Centenary College of Louisiana in 1980 and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is an active outdoorsman and avid pilot. Caldwell is married to Sharon Caldwell and they have two children – Tyler and Brendan.
